

Turquoise Lady
on the Llama Ranch

Perry's

Thomas Willmann

Turquois Lady on the Llama Ranch (5'26") for Symphonic Band. The title comes from a turquois RV on an llama ranch in Sante Fe, New Mexico where the couple (farmer Bill and Robin) allow travelers to book a stay in his 1971 travel trailer (or yert) for a unique experience. The composer visited in 2019.

The piece is primarily legato throughout, has frequent but brief moments of rhythmic statements (measure 18), several reacurring motifs, and three-against-two sections which should be played without tension. Encourage dynamics contrast to create the phrases that pass between instruments. Two players is recommended for the vibraphone/xylophone part.

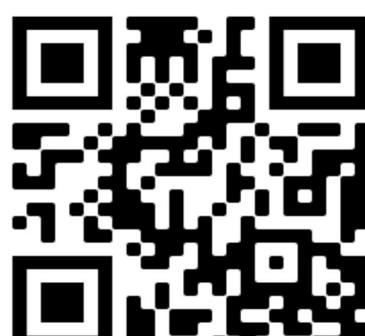

The composer highly suggests staying on a llama ranch.
